

Little Scene Stealers Workshop

Voorhees Theatre Company is pleased to offer a Saturday morning theatre workshop for your budding "little scene stealer". Children ages five through seven (must currently be attending K-2 grade) will have an exciting morning consisting of games, singing, storytelling and other fun activities that introduce theatrical concepts and performing techniques. Subjects covered will include character development, setting the scene, fun with props, singing for the stage and more. At the conclusion of the workshop, parents will be invited to view a "mini-performance" by their future star! Voorhees Theatre Company's "Little Scene Stealers" workshop will be held on Saturday, May 5, from 10am-12pm in the Music Room of Voorhees Middle School, 1000 Holly Oak Drive, Voorhees, NJ. The cost is $25.00 per child. Please print out and complete the information sheet below and send it with your check made out to Voorhees Theatre Company. Space is limited to sign up today!
